

THE ROYAL AFFAIR

She was taking a bath, where King David could see,
From the roof of his house, just like watching TV.
Seeing her there, was a beautiful sight,
And David decided, "I want her tonight!"

Bathsheba said yes, when she could have said no.
Her husband was gone, and no one would know.
Bathsheba knew, she was breaking her vow,
But gave into the King, who wanted her now.

As she left the King's bed, they were aware,
They had both sinned, when they had the affair.
It may have felt good, but now they felt bad.
Bathsheba was pregnant, and he was the dad.

To cover his sin, here was his plan.
*"I'll bring home Uriah, as fast as I can.
He'll sleep with Bathsheba, and he will believe,
It was his seed that made her conceive."*

But Uriah said, "No, I'll sleep on the floor".
Taking his roll, he slept by the door.
*"My men are in battle. It wouldn't be fair,
To be with my wife, while they're fighting out there."*

When he found out, King David said, *"fine,
I'll throw a party and he'll drink my wine.
He'll forget about war and his passions will stir.
When he goes to bed, he'll be sleeping with her."*

But again he said no! This was David's last try.
To cover his sin, Uriah must die.
David was willing to take his friend's life,
To hide the affair that he had with his wife.

God was displeased with what David had done,
Causing the death of Bathsheba's new son.
One night with Bathsheba! He'd made a bad trade.
Murder and death was the price that he paid.
